Lakeview House Collection is a Survival Horror video game developed and published by Roope Tamminen. This is the sequel to his free flash game Lakeview Cabin. The protagonist arrives at an abandoned house, and strange and frightening things begin to happen to him. He needs to escape this building in order to survive. There are three game modes in Lakeview. In survival mode, you can explore the house alone or with friends, search for items and solve puzzles. When you find something useful, you can sell it to some collector for good money. In Survival Mode, you can use the money you earn to upgrade your home.
